Entropy

the Promise
that branded
her tongue
the one
 pressed
 against her cheek
lit with the fire
from the gun
that read her stories
about the dark

but the hand
that traced her
hip
didn't check
its grip
and she fell
 through the sand in pieces

she boiled
amid her morals
tried to stifle
the inner quarrel
eyes
 left on the sky
 her lashes -
 the final curtain

her reflection
requests a kiss
 so she turned her cheek and wished
to be asked
again once more

6:28 on the dot

and that's when she forgot
 torn lips
 distraught
over
the haves and have nots

the night
when the blue eyes
 dropped
