Dear Judy:

Congratulations! You have been selected to receive the 2014 NMU Distinguished Faculty Award. This award reflects the respect and confidence of both your faculty colleagues and the University administration.

The Distinguished Faculty Award recipient will be recognized at a special recognition reception to be held at the University Center. Your academic dean and your departmental colleagues will be invited to the reception. An invitation will be sent to all within the next few weeks. At this reception, you will be presented with a $1,000, after taxes, cash award. Please plan to attend the reception, along with a guest and any family members you may wish to invite, on the evening of Tuesday, April 22, at 5:00 p.m. A photographer will be present to take photos of the occasion. Please confirm your attendance with my administrative assistant, Linda Hares (2922).

Soon you will be contacted by the Registrar's Office concerning your participation at the Spring Commencement ceremony on Saturday, May 3. You will be seated with the Platform Party during Commencement and introduced by the President during his speech. You will also be contacted by the Bookstore regarding your robe. Also, you and members of your family will be invited to the Honors Breakfast on Saturday, May 3 at 8:00 a.m. in the Great Lakes Rooms.

Again, congratulations! You are about to join a small but highly honored and respected group of your colleagues. If you have any questions about any of the above events, please contact Ms. Linda Hares at 227-2922 or lhares@nmu.edu.

Sincerely,
